On the first day, September 24, 2025, the conference will open at the Croatian State Archives at Marulićev trg 21. This is the central archival institution responsible for collecting information on archival materials in Croatia. It is the most important palace of the Croatian Art Nouveau period, a combination of early Viennese Secessionism and modern European architecture from the beginning of the 20th century, built in 1913.

Library of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts

On the second day, September 25, 2025, the conference will be held at the Library of the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, located at Trg Josip Juraj Strossmayera 14. This distinguished neo-Renaissance building, constructed in 1884, based on the design of renowned architect Hermann Bollé, originally served as the home of the Chemistry Department of the Faculty of Science and Mathematics until 2005. Today, the library holds a rich collection of rare books, manuscripts, and periodicals, including invaluable works from the early modern period and the Croatian national revival.

Museum of Contemporary Art
